

DS-278 armchair

DS-278 by Christian Werner for de
Sede

Ease and stability in a single armchair with straightforward functionality - a truly powerful piece. Modern low back with optimum seating comfort and design quality. Exciting transition from the seat to the back shell as a distinguishing feature. Various leather qualities and colours available for the outer and inner shell. Accent features with finely worked decorative stitching.

