

Gaulino chair

It is a great pleasure to see that BD is going to launch an improved re-edition of the historic Gaulino Chair, which design in 1987, was selected for the Industrial Design Prize and Adi-Fad in 1989. "Although its appearance in totally handmade, the Gaulino was my first really industrial project in wood; with it I discovered just what machines could do and make. I learned and enjoyed it very much and I think it is one of my best works." - Oscar Tusquets Blanca
