

Shiva flower vase

In the beginning of the 70th Sotssass made different trips to Barcelona. He had fallen in love with a beautiful Catalan girl. As fruit of this love and his stay in our country has remained this piece for the history of our design. The golden version is a price award. It was produced specially for the 10th edition of the Signes Price Awards for Design students.

"... I continue to produce small, small, small architectures, such as this ceramic piece, for example, a little like monuments, a little like tombs, a little like the abandoned temples of the gods, a little like the ruins of the ancient and unknown civilization in which something was known."

Pink glazed ceramic.
