

DS-48 armchair

DS-48 by Gordon Guillaumier for de Sede

Clear, understated impression and simple and timeless elegance with a number of discreetly extravagant details. This design blends subtly into any room and yet still catches the eye with its no-frills aesthetic. Loose fabric cushions in two sizes are there to satisfy all requirements - whether a formal meeting or relaxed lounging - and ensure a novel seating experience. Quilted stitching in leather on the seat and backrest. Combinations including sofa, armchair, stool and daybed can be adapted to most individual needs. Feet of wood or chrome.
