

Colosso

Colosso bowls are made of Neoprene yarn, which is velvety, flexible, smooth, and pleasant to touch. Products made with it feel soft, silky, in complete contrast with its robust appearance and intense colors. Sourcing the best Italian raw material, Neo manufactures high-end objects for the home and personal accessories, which are knitted, crocheted, woven, simply plaited, twisted, or knotted. Design ideas come from many things: natural forms and everyday objects, found in travels around the world, inspire shape and the colors of each piece that fuses sophistication, durability, and a modern aesthetic.
