

Trumpet Coatstand

The Trumpet Coatstand is designed by the Danish architect duo Space Copenhagen. The nine discs in three different sizes are fitted to the stand using turned wooden dowels. Each component in the wooden version is turned manually on a lathe, showcasing the skill of Kharadi, an Indian wood turning community and supports their local skills. The Trumpet Coatstand is flat packed for ease of labor and transportation.

