

DS-57 armchair

DS-57 by Franz Romero for de Sede

A single piece in a completely streamlined shape: The design and sitting comfort are reminiscent of a 1930s racing car. The steep rake of the seat is achieved by using a wedge-shaped base - in impact-resistant high gloss lacquer, varnished solid oak or aluminium. This model is also available with an integrated, adjustable headrest.

