

DS-21 sofa sectional

DS-21 by Stephan Hurlemann for de
Sede

The DS-21 sofa sectional brings together the ease and familiarity of a seating area with the grandeur of high feet. A new combination, it represents the maturing of a typology previously only found in lounges. The DS-21 has the appearance of a floating sculpture, an elevated seating area, and can be used in both private and semi-public spaces.

