

Tivedo table lamp

Ultra-light, ultra-jointed and ultra-technological, starting with the arms in injection-molded technopolymer, joined and organized in an original two-way pantograph system that allows for the widest range and variation of movement, always ensuring steady balance and stability. The swivel head, also in technopolymer, fitted with a practical, intuitive T-shaped grip, contains an LED lighting module of the latest generation.

