

Wireflow Free-Form suspension lamp

Wireflow designed by Arik Levy. Elegant and amorphous, this sculptural luminaire combines artisanal pressed-glass LED light points and industrial black electrical wire to carry out artistic and unique lighting installations. The design can be modified to create a completely unique and custom solution. The canopy (power feed) can be positioned on the ceiling or wall.

