

Illusion ceiling and wall lamp

Much thinner than a traditional applique, Illusion is an LED wall lamp that significantly reduces energy consumption. The look of a sphere within a square is generated by the optical effect of the Fresnel lens; the body of the planar light fixture has a thickness of just 4 centimeters.

