

Low Stool Recycled aluminum

The Low Stool is designed by the Danish architect duo Space Copenhagen and is regarded as a New Danish Classic. With its organic yet minimalist style, this stool is suitable for both residential and commercial use. The stool is crafted by the ancient technique of sand casting in a small workshop in Northern India. The raw material is derived from 70% aluminium waste. The upholstery is genuine leather.

