

Court Yard sideboard

Small collection of containers in wood with day compartments and sliding doors, that re-interpret the taste and creativity typical of the industrial design of the '60s. Court Yard, with structures and metal feet, is the result of Francesco Rota's work on the theme of containment and is thought to be combined to all Lema's padded furniture.

