

Court Yard side table

The coffee table designed by Francesco Rota that completes the collection of modular storage units in wood with visible compartments and sliding doors, re-interprets the typical taste and creativity of the industrial design of the '60s. Court Yard, with metal structure and feet, is thought to be matched to all Lema's padded furniture. The wood tops can be embellished with a thin metal slab.

32" L x 16.25" D x 17" H

