

Warp sofa

A furnishing accessory with an unusual lively twist: a pouf in leather, characterised by an organic shape where the details, recovered and the result of faraway cultures, define the bold expressive character. Ideal synthesis between industrial design and high craftsmanship, the volumes are cut by relief stitching that underscore the great tailoring skills, since always underlying the made in Lema.

