

Eydo Chaise Lounge

A bold fluidity and an architectural footprint define the asymmetric dormeuse Eydo by Francesco Rota. It is characterized by the aerial structure in bronze painted metal that interacts with the uniquely shaped seat section and backrest, which - though its reduced thickness keeps it as light as a feather - wraps around the body, delivering maximum comfort. The top-stitching detailing and leather covering, meanwhile, take the design to the next level.

Dimensions

W - D - H (inches)

63.5 x 30 x 34.75

