

Bice Lounge Chair

The clean, refined style of Roberto Lazzeroni - who has always incorporated past influences while looking to the future and drawing inspiration from the art world - is clear to see in the Bice lounge chair.

This versatile piece feels like a new classic, with its inviting forms and vintage spirit. The perfect solution for any room in the house, be that the living room or bedroom, Bice will also work well in relaxed contract spaces. Its sleek, bronzed metal structure is offset by a covering in either fabric or leather.
