

Victoriano bed

With its regal air VICTORIANO, an upholstered bed with a solid wood structure, is inspired by stylistic elements of the past brought up to date with a contemporary twist. Its high headboard, slightly curved at the sides to accommodate the mattress and embellished by central topstitching, is connected to the bed frame by a continuous, gentle line, resulting in a design of great elegance suitable for every home. This is classical bed, able to grace any modern environment.

