

Jill Chaise Lounge

Jill chaise lounge by Edward van Vliet
for Leolux

The design references a bygone era, inspired by 19th-century luxury hotel and home interiors. The Edward van Vliet style is distinctly evident in the armchair and chaise longue.

He combines a touch of nostalgia with contemporary comfort, charming curves and elegant details, including “black nickel” legs that slightly bow inwards, so that the seat appears to float.

