

Agave suspension lamp

A game of transparency, reflection and refractions generates light with vivid visual impact. Three special filters can be superimposed to create chromatic effects. The radial structure of the transparent methacrylate ribs conceals the light source, preventing glare and light dispersion.

