

Tai Open Air chair

Tai Open Air is a collection of chairs featured by the skillful combination of outdoor materials. The protagonist is polypropylene rope, inspired by mooring ropes for boating, and supported by a painted aluminum frame; the four available colors - Chalk, Petrol, Elephant and Black - make it sophisticated in its simplicity. Tai Open Air can either present a padded seat or else a precious hand-made weave, available in two versions, for both backrest and seat.

