

Cone Open Air low tables

Cone Open Air is a collection of coffee tables with a cone-shaped base in Ductal® concrete with a light gray finish. Made up of very fine natural mineral components and organic fibers, which make it resistant and flexible, this concrete is of the highest quality and technology, conceived for outdoor use. The top is made of iroko wood and is available with a square or round shape.

