

Algorithm suspension lamp

Toan Nguyen is the designer of the Algorithm pendant lamp collection . This collection fuses beauty and geometry within a lighting system filled with magic. Vibia offers a pendants and chandeliers where the user can choose between predefined references or create a space specific version of the product in order to adapt perfectly to the space in question. The Algorithm collection is composed of pressed glass encompassed spheres of LED light suspended at different heights and attached to the ceiling via a floating tubular structure.

