

Mayfair suspension lamp

The Mayfair pendant lights are designed by Diego Fortunato. An evolutionary step for the 19th Century lighting genre incorporating innovative technology based on the use of LED light source and the dimmer which represent a clear vote of confidence in the power of design, re-imagined using new finishes following current popular trends.

