

Tico Table

A perfect dining-room table is not only functional also the visual aspect is important at all times of the day; the correct dimensions, proportions and certainly also the finish. And the perfect picture is different for every interior. The look of the Tico was the focus during its design and development. The result is an extremely complete table series that offers unparalleled choice.

The versatility of this dining-room table is already apparent from the dimensions; Tico is available in three widths and in no fewer than eight lengths from 140 to 280 cm. The corners and elegant aluminium legs are curved as standard and bend seamlessly with the curve of the table top. A wide range of materials and colours is available for an individual finish, each with its own look; each version is different in solid walnut and oak and ceramic, making Tico a serious candidate for many interiors.

Available in widths of 35.4, 39.3, or 43.3 inches and lengths of 55 to 110 inches. Special sizes available on request.

The Tico table top is finished in solid oak, solid walnut, ceramic or lacquer.
