

Ludwig Storage Unit

The hexagonal unit Ludwig is Meridiani's contemporary reinterpretation of the cabinet. These columns are characterized by a wide storage capacity and can be used independently or even paired in order to shape the rooms. Ludwig's wide range of finishes may result in a rigorous and monochromatic object as much as in an exuberant piece of interior design, especially with the Diamond bevelled mirror finish.

