

DS-164 sofa

DS-164 by Hugo de Ruiter for de Sede

Modular seating island in organic curves represents the perfect place to relax from the stress of everyday life. A striking presence combined with innovative functionality and a playful approach to the traditional expectations of a sofa. This product can be transformed from an open sofa into an elegant chaise longue in a single action. The backrests can be rotated through 360 degrees. Can be adapted to any floor plan and any requirements.

